CELEBRATING THE SERVICE: Cllr Kirby and members of the Royal Greenwich Homelessness Forum receive the Silver Standard

Council scoops award for homelessness services

THE ROYAL borough has become the first local authority in the country to receive a special status for homelessness services.

The council has been awarded the government's Silver Standard for its work in tackling homelessness and preventing people and families becoming homeless in the first place.

Cabinet member for housing, Cllr Chris Kirby received the award on behalf of the council at an event last week (July 15) which also marked the ten year anniversary of the Royal Greenwich Homelessness Forum.

The royal borough's focus has been on intervening to prevent people and families becoming homeless. As a result 1800 local families in the last year alone have avoided becoming homeless because of the support provided by the Royal Borough and its partners.

The royal borough also has the lowest level of using temporary accommodation in South East London.

The borough provides a comprehensive Housing Options & Support Service and works with a wide range of partner organisations to meet the needs of residents. The anniversary event last week saw many such organisations come together to report the progress they have made in the last ten years.

One such organisation is CAYSH, which provides supported lodgings for homeless 16 to 19 year olds in Greenwich on behalf of the council. CAYSH works with participating householders to secure young people accommodation and help them stabilise their lives from a safe and secure base. Residents who can provide a home and support to a young person are encouraged to get involved with CAYSH.

The charity and housing association Housing for Women is also a key partner of the council and provides specialist services for women who have suffered domestic abuse or need support.

GT spoke to two women who have benefited from the service. The first woman told GT: "I can't say more than they were my angels. They wish more for you than they wish for themselves. They helped me with so many things, from helping teach me English to finding a school for my daughter and finding me a property. It's also about safety."

LETTERS

Great Garden

I'd like to thank all concerned with the Rockliffe Gardens renovations. We met several councillors, Clive Efford MP and several helpers. As we went round we reminisced when our children and friends climbed the rocks and found tadpoles and Goldfish in the pond.

Bruce Wasley,
Plumstead

● Thanks for taking the time to write into Greenwich Time.

We are glad that you enjoyed the event at Rockliffe Gardens and were able to share your interesting memories of the Gardens with visitors and councillors. The council's successful partnership with the local community has seen the first phase of improvements to the Gardens completed with more planned in the future.
Hopefully this will lead to even greater enjoyment for our residents.

School clubs vary too much

I AM writing this letter because I feel very concerned that things are done differently regarding the breakfast club and after-school clubs in schools in the royal borough. I happened to be using this service in the Greenslade School and I need to pay for every day of the week irrespective if the child comes or not. I understand this was part of the terms and conditions signed to, but what I do not understand is the fact that other schools in the same borough render this service on a pay-as-you go basis.

If an adult is available at home to pick and drop the child on a particular day of the week, you still have to pay, because you are made to choose the days and you cannot afford to pay and not use the service. This is not very helpful. It will be good to have it when you need it like Foxfield and other schools in the area.
I have no option because my daughter goes to Timbercroft and the only school that provide this service to Timbercroft children is Greenslade School.

I will appreciate if this can be looked into, as everyone is trying to save as much as possible.

Thank you

Adejumoke Idowu,
Woolwich

● David Ashley Headteacher
at Greenslade said: "I am very proud of our Breakfast and After School Clubs and of the quality of the service our families receive. It is wonderful to see children from the two schools eating and playing so happily together, supervised by our well trained and qualified staff.
We are constantly developing exciting new activities and options for our children to enjoy and always listen carefully to the views of our children and their families. Due to the age of our children we have to follow very strict guidelines for the number of staff we employ to ensure we keep to a safe ratio of children and play leaders.
Advance booking guarantees a child's place at the club, which we could not do under a "drop in arrangement."

The majority of the money
we charge goes on the salaries of our staff and we would not be able to pay their wages if the amount of money we took in fluctuated each week due to parents making other arrangements. We do not charge if a child is unwell and not in school. I welcome the opportunity to speak with Mrs Idowu if she would like to come in to school and meet me."

Four hundred hotel jobs on offer

ADVICE: Mitchell Hayzen, apprentice administrator in GLLaB's Job Brokerage team, with job seeker Alonge-Ayomide Remilekun from Woolwich

- Free training
- Personal advice
- Benefits & tax c
- Support to acce
- Volunteering op
- Paid work place
- Job opportuniti

RECRUITING is underway for more than 400 new jobs at the prestigious 'InterContinental London The O2' hotel, now being built on the Greenwich Peninsula.

GLLaB, the borough's jobs and training scheme, is playing a key role in helping to find, select and train the new staff for jobs and apprenticeship opportunities, in roles such as kitchen work, catering and hospitality, spa treatment technicians, front-of-house, housekeeping and maintenance.

The hotel is keen to recruit local people, and GLLaB is running a series of eight drop-in roadshow events around the borough, where people can learn more, get advice and apply for the vacancies.

One event was held at Clockhouse Community Centre at Woolwich Dockyard last Monday (July 13), where there was a steady stream of people all day, from all ages and backgrounds. Also on hand were staff from The Point in Woolwich, which gives advice to young people, along with the borough's Welfare Rights Service and the Families Information Service.

They included Sulayman Bah from Woolwich Dockyard, who works as a concierge in the City of London. He said: "I'm looking for a job that is more local for me. This event is very useful for local people and gives different options for people to choose from. If I get a job at the InterContinental London, it will cut my travelling costs by half."

Mother and daughter Wendy and Charlene Harrison from Greenwich were at the Clockhouse roadshow to find out what was on offer. Wendy said: "This event was absolutely fine for me because I want to work in housekeeping or waitressing. I've applied and I'm now waiting to see what happens next."

Mum-of-three Charlene said: "The staff here are very good at explaining everything. I'm not working at the moment and I'd like a job on reception or on events."

And Woolwich resident Alonge-Ayomide Remilekun said: "I am not working at the moment, and I would be happy getting any of the jobs at the hotel."

Cllr Sizwe James, the council's cabinet member for business, employment and skills, said: "The arrival of this large new hotel means new jobs for many local people, and that is good news indeed. It is excellent to see so many local people coming forward to find out more about the range of roles on offer."

The next two drop-in recruitment events will both be at GLLaB's offices in the Old Woolwich Library in Calderwood Street, Woolwich, today (Tuesday, July 21) and Saturday (July 25). People can also find out about other jobs through GLLaB by visiting their offices, calling 020 8921 2440, or emailing gllab-jobs@royalgreenwich.gov.uk

● The 18-storey luxury hotel, next to the O2, is set to open in the autumn. It will have 453 guestrooms and suites, a luxury spa with an indoor pool, restaurants and bars - including an all-day dining restaurant, a tea salon and a rooftop bar. There will also be a conference centre with a huge 3,100sq metre pillar-free ballroom which can take up to 3000 guests, and 20 meeting rooms. HRH Prince Andrew performed the hotel's 'topping out' ceremony back in February.

● Hundreds of new construction jobs have also been created. Surinder Arora, Chief Executive of The Arora Group, the hotel's operators, has said: "Working alongside great partners, we're on track to open one of the most significant new hotel developments London has witnessed for several years, with events space to rival many of Europe's largest conference venues and fantastic new leisure and business facilities to join the vibrant mix of entertainment and corporate space here in Greenwich."

THREE GENERATIONS: Mum and daughter Wendy and Charlene Harrison, with Charlene's baby son Albie, aged five months.

Little green fingers

Pound Park Nursery in Charlton has some of the borough's youngest gardeners to thank for its recent Highly Commended award in the Greenwich in Bloom competition.

Children at the nursery up to the age of four helped with the hanging baskets that won the nursery its recognition in the competition. Lena Horton, one of Pound Park's early years practitioners, has been encouraging the youngsters to develop their green fingers and told GT she thinks it's important that children understand where food comes from. She added that Pound Park nursery "will definitely be back next year, and we'll be back better!"

Sarah Harrison, Head teacher at Pound Park Nursery, said, "Through the gardening activities our children participate in regularly here at Pound Park, the children were able to independently create these wonderful hanging baskets. Subsequently, we entered this fabulous display of flowers in to the Greenwich in Bloom competition and are proud to say we will be awarded a 'highly commended' certificate for the children's efforts by the Mayor of Greenwich later this year."

New farmers' market a shining success

A VIBRANT new farmers' market has opened for business at the Royal Arsenal in Woolwich. The new market featured a host of local and independent businesses - with many selling out of by the end of the first day.

The market showcased local produce and visitors were tempted by a variety of stalls including Greenwich based Drings Butchers, The Honest Loaf based in Charlton, the Very Green Greengrocer from Shooters Hill and L'Atypique Wines, which sets up stalls at various London markets.

The market was set up by Royal Arsenal residents and business owners Emma Whatley and James Yeomans. They run Hop Stuff Brewery - also based at the Royal Arsenal. With the help of Berkeley Homes, they wanted a way to champion local business. Emma told GT, "We enjoy buying local produce and Berkeley's support has provided us and the wider community a platform to do so right on our doorstep. We could not have asked for a better start and we hope people will enjoy coming back each month."

Councillor Danny Thorpe, the Royal Borough of Greenwich's Cabinet Member for Regeneration and Transport went along to the market's first day (July 11):

"The Royal Arsenal is a fantastic space and is a real draw for visitors - as well as being a really attractive place to live for the thousands of new residents here.

We've worked hard to regenerate the whole town in recent years and the transformation is superb. The farmer's market is a wonderful addition and makes for even more reason to come and visit the area and to enjoy this fantastic waterfront location. It was brilliant to see so many local small businesses in attendance too

- this is great for local people and visitors and is good for local businesses too"

Karl Whiteman, Divisional Managing Director of Berkeley Homes (East Thames) also went along, he said, "The farmers' market launch was a resounding success, and it's fantastic to see the community supporting local businesses and the entrepreneurial spirit that's here. We hope that this event will act as a catalyst to attract further business to Woolwich, helping to shape an ever-growing community."

The farmers' market will return on Saturday 8 August and will continue to be held on the second Saturday of each month, 10am - 3pm, along No. 1 Street in Berkeley's Royal Arsenal Riverside development in Woolwich, SE18.

Eileen, 99, celebrates with a 99!

THERE was only one way that Eileen Bryant could celebrate her 99th birthday at Len Clifton House in Woolwich – it had to be with a 99 ice cream.

Staff at the council-run sheltered accommodation in Cambridge Barracks Road arranged for a Mister Softee van to call in and present with her favourite ice cream cornet, complete with a chocolate flake.

Jayne McNeall, the house's scheme manager, said: "She was overjoyed. She didn't know anything about it beforehand, and it came as a big surprise.

She said: 'Thank you so much'.

Everyone came out to see her being handed the ice cream. It was a really nice afternoon for her.

"Eileen has lived here for 25 years, and we call her the Queen Mother because she is the oldest here – and she wore the tiara from the birthday cake we made for her, just like the real Queen Mother."

The second woman GT spoke to said: "They helped me with everything to get my life back on track after my husband moved out. I was able to stay in my own house. My support worker was so important to me in that stage of my life. I was able to take care of myself and my children with the help I received. The most important thing is I feel safe."

Cllr Chris Kirby, cabinet member for housing said: "I'm proud of the royal borough's excellent track record in providing support to residents affected by homelessness. We have invested in services that actively prevent homelessness and support vulnerable households. This has allowed us to minimise the financial and social impact of homelessness and temporary accommodation.

It is a fantastic achievement to be the first council in the country to receive a Silver Mark from the NPSS and we are working to achieve Gold Standard in the future.

"The housing climate is increasingly challenging and homelessness across London and the country is on the increase so we will continue to do everything possible to support local people in difficult situations through our Housing Options & Support Service."

Our dedicated and experienced foundation staff pride themselves on creating a safe, friendly and inspiring learning experience where children 'make outstanding progress' (Ofsted 2015). We focus on building strong partnerships with both adults and children so that learning can be tailored to each child's strengths and interests. Our children 'take delight in sharing, taking turns and joining in activities together' (Ofsted 2015). We aim for all of our children to achieve to their very best and develop the skills and attitude to become life-long learners.

We firmly believe that happy children learn best in a place where they feel loved and supported. All our staff aim to provide an environment where parents and children feel welcome and safe. See what our children and their parents have to say about our Nursery:

'The staff just know how my daughter learns and they make it feel like the whole place is set up just for her. The amazing thing is; the staff make all the children feel like that.' – Laura (Parent)

'I learn about sounds like hot; h – a – t ... and lot, they are rhyming.' – Nethra, 4.

'We can count numbers, we counted how many children were in; 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10!' – Olivia, 3.

'We are incredibly proud of our fantastic Nursery and the team of extremely dedicated staff who provide our children with happy and exciting learning experiences. Please do come along, pay a visit and take a look for yourself.' Joanna Gledhill, Head of School.

Digging for history

GREENWICH PARK has been the scene of an exciting archaeology excavation this month involving the search for a historic building that existed as far back as the 17th century. A team of professionals and volunteers took part in a week-long dig (13-16 July) around the Park's Queen Elizabeth Oak as part of an on-going project that aims to excavate the former 'Keepers Cottage', a series of buildings demolished in the 19th century.

Now in its second year, the project has been organised by Royal Parks and the Friends of Greenwich Park. The dig has been led by three professional leaders from the company Keevill Heritage helped by 10 volunteers supporting the excavation.

Over the course of the week the dig unearthed some interesting items, from pottery, pipes, tiles roof slates and original brickwork to a belt buckle, thought to have belonged to one of the Cottage's residents.

Greenwich Park is perhaps the most historic of all the Royal Parks with a history that dates back to Roman times. Like the rest of Greenwich, it is well known for its royal connection and particularly the Tudors, with Henry VIII using the park to keep his deer in.

Graham Keevill of Keevill Heritage led the project and told GT: "The Keepers Cottage is one of the most interesting and compelling lost buildings in Greenwich Park. We are aiming to find out more about it, including its exact location- we have been using historic maps to estimate so far. Other records tell us about some of the history of the area and we are trying to marry these with our own historical findings."

"Greenwich is a fabulous place to work - literally beneath our feet is an amazing story of people who lived here and we can get up close and personal with this history. The reaction of local people has been great and this makes our job easier."

Much is already known about Greenwich Park's rich history - The Roman Temple and Anglo-Saxon Cemetery is part of the Greenwich Maritime World Heritage Site. However there is always more to be found and the next stage of the archaeology project is already being planned for next year.

ROYAL BOROUGH OF GREENWICH

Dig in to a Summer feast

by Ronnie Woods

AROUND three thousand local residents, shoppers and visitors were treated to a day of local good food, music and fun at the Royal Greenwich Summer Feast in Woolwich on Saturday July 11.

The feast, which took place in General Gordon Square, Woolwich, was the latest in a series of events to promote healthy, sustainable food in the borough, organised through the Good Food in Greenwich initiative.

The event was a celebration of some of the borough's local food businesses and organisations, with each having their own stalls. It was also an encouragement to more businesses and individuals to change their eating and shopping patterns, and to get involved in projects aimed at creating a fairer, healthier and more sustainable borough.

A wide range of free workshops on offer included Turning Waste into Wonder, how to grow your own veg using containers and healthy treats and samples cooked by the Change 4 Life Roadshow Chef.

The event also featured face painting and craft activities for children and music from Global Fusion Arts.

Cllr Denise Scott-McDonald, the Royal Borough's Cabinet Member for Community Wellbeing and Public Health, said, "Summer Feast is one of many projects happening across the borough to promote the positive contribution made by the food we grow and buy to our own health, and to the well-being of the local community and of the planet. It's a great chance for local residents to find out about the healthy food being grown in the borough and how to get involved more with Good Food in Greenwich."

Terry Powley, Chair of Greenwich Cooperative Development Agency, said, "I am delighted that we held our first summer network event in General Gordon Square. It has been an exciting day with everyone enjoying the music, food and fun. Good Food in Greenwich strives towards a fairer, healthier and more sustainable borough, with more and more people pledging to help us achieve our goal."

Mel Taylor, Co-ordinator of Good Food in Greenwich said: "We were so delighted with the Summer Feast on Saturday. The aim of the event was to raise awareness about good food in Greenwich, and thanks to the support and help from some great partners, we had around three thousand people come through the square. It really shows that there is a demand for good food in Woolwich, and with some of the best restaurants in London right on the square, everyone is spoilt for choice. The event was a great success for the traders, information stalls and Good Food in Greenwich and we'll start planning the next one very soon!"

Tall Ship Cruises Go On Sail

TALL SHIPS return to the borough's waterfront in Woolwich this summer – with just weeks to go now until this year's Royal Greenwich Tall Ships Festival. Tickets for the Sail Royal Greenwich 2015 Tall Ship Cruises are now on sale, with holders able to board the Tall Ships from all over the world from August 27 to 31.

Starting from Greenwich Heritage Centre and the Woolwich Royal Arsenal Pier, the Sail Royal Greenwich cruises sail through the Thames Barrier and up the river with lovely views of the Old Royal Naval College, the Cutty Sark and Canary Wharf. A stunning fireworks display will provide a grand finale to every evening cruise.

Sjors Mooyman from Sail Royal Greenwich said: "We are excited to be returning for another year with 15 Tall Ships attending from around the world. Among these ships are the Santa Maria Manuela, a 68 metre four mast schooner from Portugal, and the Dar Młodzieży, a 108 metre full rigged Polish sailing ship. These two grand Tall Ships will be moored near the famous Cutty Sark in Maritime Greenwich and will be open for ship visits."

There will also be a day of free festivities for local people and visitors in Woolwich on Saturday 29 August – which will also include the chance to step on board the ships for free as they are moored alongside the river. And new this year is the Tall Ship Island – with two of the most beautiful vessels moored on the Greenwich Ship Tier. Visitors who buy tickets will be able to access the boats via a special Thames Clipper service and have an hour long tour of the boats with a chance to speak to cadets and to hear from guides telling stories about life at sea.

...on Millennium Performing Arts Graduates

Former students have gone on to perform in top stage shows and films such as Miss Saigon, Warhorse, Avenue Q, Bend it like Beckham, Wicked, the Rambert dance company and The Lion King.

Cllr Adams, said: "The level of commitment from the students is unbelievable and I can only admire the hard work they put in. It's encouraging and shows how level headed and determined these young people are to get on and perform well."

Donald McLennan, Director of Millennium Performing Arts said "I am so proud of all of my graduates from this year and the years before. The production of Sweet Charity was a great success and both Charity's Lydia Ventre and Jessica Theobald both performed with distinction."

Lydia Ventre, 19, who was awarded the Best All Round Performer said "I'm very overwhelmed but feel amazing, these 3 years have gone so quickly and I wouldn't change it for the world. Our training is incredible; we have the best teachers who have helped us towards our future career in theatre. It's sad to be leaving but excited to move on and take the next step. I'm signing with an agent for work on the West End and start rehearsals soon for Hello Dolly in Cambridge."

GreenwichHomes

Royal Borough of Greenwich's Choice Based Lettings Scheme

Edition 451

BIDDING FOR PROPERTIES

People on the Housing register are able to bid for all properties, regardless of their banding. You must be eligible for the size of property and bids will be considered in the following order:

First Band A, followed by Band B both in priority date order.

Those in Band C will then be considered in registration date order.

Please note that there will still be some properties with age restrictions so only people of this age group can apply for these.

BAND

- A is for applicants in unsatisfactory housing, including people moving due to demolition and those underoccupying their homes.
- B is for applicants the Royal Borough of Greenwich must prioritise according to the law, particularly homeless people, and others with an urgent need to move for medical or welfare reasons.
- C is for all applicants on the housing register, including those that are in priority bands A and B.

How do I apply?

Get on the list

First, you've got to be on the housing waiting list to join the scheme. If you're not, register an application on line at

Find your applicant number

It will be on the letter you've already had from the Royal Borough of Greenwich about the new scheme. You'll need that number and the reference number of the property you're after, which will be on the advert.

Pick out your ideal property

by looking in Greenwich Time or regularly checking the website:

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR ROYAL BOROUGH TENANTS WHO ARE MOVING

DON'T GET A BILL AFTER YOU LEAVE

Under the conditions of your tenancy agreement, you have a responsibility to leave your property in an acceptable state of repair. We may visit you to check this. If we consider your property is in an unacceptable condition, you may be prevented from moving or be recharged for work.

To avoid getting an unwelcome bill, follow these rules:

- Repair any damage caused to the property by you, your family or visitors to your home.
- Make good any changes you have made to your property e.g. put back any doors that you have removed.
- Make sure your garden is not overgrown and you have cleared all garden waste.
- Clear all your items from the inside and the outside of the property. This includes any loft space, external cupboards or sheds.
- Return all the keys to the Royal Borough's offices no later than midday on Monday (or Tuesday if it is a Bank Holiday). You will be charged a further week's rent if you do not return your keys on time.

If you leave repairs that are your responsibility, or items that require disposal you will be charged the cost of this work.

Special Collection Service

The Royal Borough offers a Special Collection Service for tenants who are moving and want to dispose of something big and bulky, like a sofa or a fridge, and even unwanted clothes and other textiles.

Simply contact Waste Services on 020 8921 4661 and tell them where you live and what you would like taken away.

Items we will collect include:

Fridges, freezers, washing machines, beds, sofas, clothes and carpets (carpets must be cut up and tied into manageable bundles that one person can carry).

Items we DO NOT collect include:

Fitted kitchens, bathroom suites, boilers, sheds, fences and rubble.

For further information, please contact Waste Services on 020 8921 4661.

IMPORTANT POLICY INFORMATION FOR THOSE AWARDED PRIORITY

When a priority is awarded, you will receive one offer of accommodation.

The following rules are used to allocate properties to applicants in Bands A, B and C, to make sure the Council makes best use of housing stock to meet needs.

- Two children (whatever gender) under 10 years old can share a bedroom
- Two children (same gender) under 16 years old can share a bedroom
- Two children of opposite gender where at least one is 10 years old or over need a bedroom each
- Each person over 16 years old needs their own bedroom
- A couple and lone parents need one bedroom
- Expected babies are counted as a person from the six month of pregnancy
- Band C applicants - Houses are allocated to a household with children (aged 15 or under)

Only RBG tenants who currently occupy houses in bands A and B, will be considered for rehousing to another house. All other priority applicants will be considered for flats or maisonettes.

Note: There are separate Allocations Policies for applicants with priority from regeneration areas.

Like for Like Moves

Council tenants housed through priority Bands A & B, are generally offered a similar type of property to that they currently occupy, of the size they require. This is because rehousing is being offered to meet safety or other needs, rather than to provide more desirable housing. Tenants, who want to move to improve the quality of their accommodation, must do so through Band C, where applicants are housed in date order.

For full details on our policies, please see the Allocations Scheme which is available on the Royal Borough of Greenwich website

Powering on

Stunning season for Greenwich
Powerchair Football Club

VICTORY: The Powerchair superstars mark
a great season

by Alex Brooks

GREENWICH Powerchair Football Club have been promoted into the South East England Regional Premiership League following a superb end to their successful season - beating

Brighton Seagulls 4-0 in the last game of the season.

Greenwich - who train at the Waterfront Leisure Centre in Woolwich - had come up against Brighton twice previously in the season, winning both games 3-0 and 4-0. The final game held at Surrey University Sports Centre saw Greenwich dominate the first ten minutes but fail to score. A short time later team captain Kyle Alexander hit the ball towards the back post for Archie Jones to swoop in and score the goal.

A few minutes later Archie scored his second. The 2-0 score stood until the half time whistle. In the second half two more goals were scored coming from Kyle Alexander and Shea French-Gibbens, to finish of the season with a 4-0 win and be promoted as League champions.

Speaking of the victory Rhea Daly, the Development Officer for Greenwich Powerchair Football Club
